

The Daily News.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 12, 1866.

LOCAL MATTERS.

SEE SECOND AND THIRD PAGES.

BROT. W.—We have received your statement, but are not allowed to publish it to-day. If you still wish it published, let us know, and we will do so.

CLEARANCE.—The bark Helen Sands, Captain OTIS, was cleared, yesterday, by Messrs. STREET, BROS. & CO., with 243 bales Sea Island and 1294 bales Upland Cotton, valued at $274,563 15.

A CONNECTION.—It seems we were not correctly informed, when we made the statement, yesterday, that the Leader was taken possession of by civil officials. As we had no intention to do it any injustice, we make this correction.

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.—The Initiatory lecture of ARTHUR P. LINING, Esq., before the students of this college, was delivered last night. Our columns are too crowded to notice it at length this morning; but we promise ourselves that pleasant to-morrow.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—We are indebted to the politeness of the Purser of the steamer Pilot Boy for Savannah exchanges of yesterday. The Pilot Boy arrived early yesterday evening, making the trip through by daylight. This daylight feature is a great recommendation to travellers who do not like the night on water.

SERENADE.—Last night the members of the Palmetto Fire Company serenaded their Vice-President, Mr. P. C. KENNEDY, on the occasion of a recent important event in his life, and on their way home honored the "News" with three cheers, and several times. We return our thanks as well for the compliment, as for the music which enlivened our midnight labors.

SOUTH CAROLINA FREEDMEN.—Secretary McCULLOCH has given the Rev. Dr. PORTER of South Carolina, permission to occupy the Marine Hospital in that State for the use of the freedmen for schools. He was sent here by the Episcopal Board of Missions, and called upon the President to-day with Gen. HOWARD. This item we clip from the Washington correspondence of the New York Tribune.

WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS.—A writ of habeas corpus was sued out in this city yesterday, under the following circumstances: On complaint of Lieut. KYLE, of an Ohio regiment, and by order from the military, a very respectable citizen was arrested by our city police. Yesterday morning, Lieut. CAMPBELL, being police officer of the day, was served with notice of a writ of habeas corpus. He sent notice to Provost Marshal, and was served with an order from him to send prisoner under guard immediately to him, and in a few minutes after with the writ of habeas corpus. After consulting the Mayor and City Attorney, he obeyed the writ. The Judge before whom prisoner was carried released him. With the order of release in his pocket, in accordance with a promise to Lieut. CAMPBELL, he reported to Provost Marshal. He was kept under arrest by Provost, and there the matter stands.

IMPORTANT TO PERSONS WITH DEFECTIVE VISION.—All who have tried the spectacles manufactured and sold by Prof. BERNHARDT, now at the Mills House, pronounce them excellent. Persons who, by reason of impaired sight, have not been able to read for years, have, by the use of these glasses, been enabled to read fine print easily and without fatigue or injury to the eye. The Professor has been educated in one of the finest Universities in Europe, and has made diseases of the eye and the science of optics his special study. All who are afflicted with defective vision should call at once, to consult him and obtain a pair of his Australian Crystal Spectacles.

Since the Professor's sojourn in this city his office has been daily thronged by many of our citizens seeking his professional services, and the united testimony of all only confirms the high opinion we had preconceived of his ophthalmic skill and the superior excellence of his glasses. We are informed by Dr. BERNHARDT that he has just received a well assorted stock of new glasses, and will be glad to show them to persons desiring to suit themselves.

LADIES' MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of conference of the Ladies and Gentlemen Committees met yesterday afternoon at Masonic Hall, to make final arrangements for the ceremony of Saturday next, June 16.

Reports from sub-committees were received. The Committee on Transportation reported that the Presidents of South Carolina and Northeastern Railroad Companies had placed trains at their disposal for conveyance of visitors, and that the fare (twenty-five cents round trip) would be collected and turned over to the Association. Arrangements were also made with omnibus lines.

The Committee on Wagons reported that the Southern and National Express, GALTNEY'S City Express, and Mills House Stables, had given each a wagon to run through principal streets on Saturday, to collect the garlands and carry them to Magnolia Cemetery.

The Committee to obtain the names of the Confederate dead buried outside of Confederate burying grounds, reported a list of about one hundred. Any information that can be given to aid this committee in their work will be gladly received by Colonels LOMB and McGRADY. An election was then held for another orator, Mr. MONTAGUE being able to be present, and resulted in the choice of Rev. Mr. BOWMAN. Rev. Mr. GIBBARD had already been elected. The other arrangements will be published to-morrow morning.

The ladies wish it to be distinctly understood that their ultimate object is the care of the families of deceased soldiers; but the condition of the graves requires immediate attention, and as this can be done without any expense, they feel confident that the community will appreciate their efforts, and give them their countenance and hearty support.

CUSTOM HOUSE OFFICIALS.—The following correspondence explains itself:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, JUNE 4th, 1866.
SIR: On account of your inability to take the oath required by law, I am reluctantly compelled to suggest that I shall be under the necessity of requesting you to forward me your resignation, to take effect as soon as a successor is appointed and qualified.
The Department will make a communication to Congress upon the subject of the compensation for services already rendered by officers who have been unable to take the oath, and I trust that suitable provision will be made in some way for such payment.
I am, respectfully,
HUGH McCULLOCH,
Secretary of the Treasury.

To J. F. W. WALTER, Appraiser, Charleston, S. C.

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 6th, 1866.
SIR: I received yours of the 4th inst. yesterday, and I regret the necessity which compelled the writing of the same. As requested, I tender you this, my resignation, as United States Appraiser for this Port.
I am aware how much difficulty you have had in regard to those who, like myself, could not take the oath of July 2d, 1862, and sincerely thank you for the efforts you are making to obtain for me the compensation now due for my past services.
I beg to remain, most respectfully, your obedient servant,
JOHN F. W. WALTER.

To Hon. HUGH McCULLOCH, Secretary of the Treasury, Washington, D. C.

UNITED STATES APPRAISER'S OFFICE.
CHARLESTON, S. C., June 9th, 1866.
SIR: Though I have received no communication from the Department, I deem it an oversight, as I have been, and am in the same category as myself, in accordance with the suggestion contained in your letter to him of the 4th inst., received yesterday, I herewith tender you my resignation as United States Appraiser of this Port.
Allow me to express my thanks for the kind consideration evinced by His Excellency the President, and your honorable self towards me; also, for the efforts you are now making to obtain remuneration for services rendered. Trusting my successor will have the same regard for others.

I beg to remain, most respectfully, your obedient servant,
EDGAR M. LARAU.
U. S. Appraiser Port of Charleston, S. C.

Hon. HUGH McCULLOCH, Secretary Treasury, Washington, D. C.

PROVOST COURT, JUNE 11, 1866.—United States vs. William Godfrey, colored, and John Godfrey, colored. Sleeping in Market.—Private COLLINS, of the Police sworn, says: Sunday morning, about three o'clock, found defendants sleeping in Market, while I was on duty there. Sent them off twice, found them a third time. Arrested them and took them to the Guard House. $5 each, or five days' hard labor.

United States vs. Daniel Rivers.—Drunk in the Streets. Sergeant POUNCEY, Police, sworn, says: At half-past eleven o'clock, Saturday night, found defendant sleeping on the sidewalk, corner of Church and Elliott streets. Drunk and quite helpless.

Policeman McDonald, sworn, says: Arrested defendant, who was intoxicated, by order of Sergeant POUNCEY, and took him to Guard House. $2 or three days' hard labor.

United States vs. Daniel Edwards and Jacob Mathews (colored).—Breaking in House.—Policeman JACKSON, sworn, says: Last night in King-street, about half past one o'clock, saw three men come out of an alley way; they were barefooted, and crossed the street when they saw witness; witness went toward them and told them to stop, when they all ran off, and witness pursued and captured Edwards; he had a bag and a large screw driver in his possession, and witness arrested him as a suspicious character; policeman FRIZZELL arrested defendant Mathews at the request of the other policeman.

Morris Simons being told to kiss the Bible, showed his idea of that monthing process by licking it. Having licked the Bible, he said that defendant Mathews broke into his house in Tradd-street, about two hours before day, and got in bed with witness and wife of witness; witness wife caught defendant by the collar, and defendant caught the wife of witness by her night clothes and tried to pull her out of bed; witness then woke up and ordered his wife, when defendant threatened to kill witness and wife if they said anything; defendant came to him again about seven o'clock and told him he would blow his brains out if he said anything.

Mrs. Charity Simons (colored), with a large fan hat, sworn, says: Last night woke and found defendant Mathews in bed with her; woke up her husband, who collared defendant; defendant threatened to stab him; defendant pulled witness out of bed; witness' husband got him out; defendant broke open outer door; defendant came back a second time.

Defendant Mathews found guilty and fined $10 and sentenced to sixty days' hard labor on the streets. Defendant Edwards, for want of sufficient evidence, not guilty, and recommended to be discharged.

United States vs. Elias Webb, colored.—Assault and Battery.—Robert Williams, colored, face bandaged and looking with very interesting, sworn, says: Defendant and I were working, on Saturday, about 9 A. M., in moving lumber for Mr. INWIN; defendant commenced to abuse me, and said I had not done enough work, and said he would cut my d—d neck off. We had some words; he dared me to repeat what I said; I did so, and he hit me in the face with the butt of an axe, and said he would kill me. I had him arrested.

Defendant guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or thirty days' hard labor on the streets.
United States vs. John Somers.—In alluding to this case yesterday morning our words gave room for the surmise that Sergeant WESCOTT was overcome by John Somers alone. This is incorrect. We learn from every quarter that the Sergeant behaved in the most prompt and gallant manner, and only succumbed when overpowered by some half dozen strapping negro men.

MAYOR'S COURT, MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 11.—The Court room was bright with an unusual array of the fair sex, in neat attire—which last is an extraordinary incident in the history of this Court.

Two individuals were called up on account of a fight in Elliott-street, but only one appeared. The one who appeared was seen to knock the other one down. The party appearing was not drunk, but the party who did not was drunk. Present individual said that absent individual was a maniac. As maniac did not appear, present individual was discharged. Mania was sufficiently sane to deposit ten dollars for a photograph.

Two pugnaulous married men, living in the same house, were having a little private dispute for their own amusement, but made so much noise about it as to attract a crowd. Married men, as usual, were set on by their wives. Married men fine ten dollars each. At this stage of proceedings fair sex disappeared. Wonder if they were not at the bottom of the row. What a pity the angels should so often raise the devil.

NICE CORN MEAL for family use may be had of him of open hand, who liberally feedeth the hungry; of course we mean Mr. J. N. ROSSON. See his advertisement in another column. Very good of Mr. B. to think of the homely wants of man and beast.

NEW SHIPPING FIRM.—We are glad to notice that a comparatively new firm, composed of old citizens, the name of which has become quite familiar of late, has added ship brokerage to their other business. We allude to Messrs. I. E. HENTZ & CO., to whose advertisement in another column we take pleasure in calling attention.

GOOD ALE is unquestionably the best drink this hot weather. The only question, therefore, is as to the best place to make an investment. We are glad to have it in our power to recommend our readers to Messrs. JOHN A. ARMSTRONG & CO., No. 61 Market-street, for a choice article. They are the agents for MARSSEY, COLLINS & Co.'s celebrated Ale, have fifty barrels on hand, and are weekly receiving new shipments.

ANCIENT FINE ARTS.—To the Editor of the New York Herald: Respecting the relics of porcelain ware found in the late excavations at Herculaneum, which have been forwarded to the Society of Antiquaries in London, whereof your correspondent says the bottle resembling DRAKE'S Plantation Bitters was undoubtedly placed among the ruins by the agent of Dr. DRAKE, we desire to state that it is incorrect in every respect. If a bottle was found there bearing our lettering, the language of the Ancient Romans was different from the accepted literature of that day. Our Agent has other business than this in Europe, and has not been in Italy at all. No doubt Americans carry Plantation Bitters to Rome; but trying to impose upon a society of Antiquarians in this way seems quite useless, and we do not appreciate the joke. It is unnecessary for us to spend money in Europe while we are unable to supply the demand for these celebrated Bitters here. Respectfully,
P. H. DRAKE & CO.

HOMOEOPATHIC REMEDIES.—One of Dr. HUMPHREY'S cases of medicines, containing thirty-five vials, embraces remedies for every well known disease, and costs $10. A family provided with one of them will save during the year, ten times the amount of their cost, in obviating the necessity of medical attendance, besides securing its members from protracted and serious illness. The trifling outlay required should be a consideration with all who believe in the axiom, "that a stitch in time saves nine." Disease, to be overcome, must be promptly met, and Dr. HUMPHREY'S remedies are invaluable for such a purpose.—New York Courier.
